

TO KEEP FAMILIES OF FRENCH HEROES INTACT

Chattanooga Ladies Draft Resolution Presented Thursday at Luncheon for Mlle. Rott.

"We women of Chattanooga, representing churches, women's clubs and other organizations, have heard the call of the fatherless children of France, as presented to us by Mlle. Rott, and we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to aid French mothers, in order that French families, whose fathers have made the supreme sacrifice, may be kept intact."

The above resolution was read and adopted at a large luncheon held Wednesday at Hotel Patten by the ladies of Chattanooga in honor of Miss Celine Rott, of France, who is here in the interest of the fatherless children of France, under the auspices of the organization so named.

One hundred and twenty-five representative Chattanooga ladies were seated at the beautifully appointed tables in the main dining room.

At each place were printed forms for signatures of those desiring to adopt a French orphan. A number of these were signed.

Mrs. James F. Finlay, local chairman, served as toastmistress and addressed the ladies.

Mlle. Rott gave a thrilling description of conditions in France and said that the hope of the nation centers in the 600,000 fatherless children, and their well-being depends upon the help extended from abroad.

During the day about fifty children were adopted by Chattanooga families.

The concluding address of Mlle. Rott was made at the First Methodist church Wednesday night. The address was prefaced by stereoscopic and moving pictures of the devastated area in northern France centered about the city of Rheims.

Richard Hardy, in introducing Mlle. Rott to her audience, made an impressive appeal for sacrifice on the part of Chattanoogaans on behalf of the French orphans.

The pictures showed the troops of small children as Mlle. Rott knew them two months ago, making their way to the cellars where, in lieu of school buildings, they are being instructed. One of the thrilling pictures showed the tiny ones adjusting gas masks at a shrill whistle from the teacher.

The ruins of the once splendid cathedral of Rheims, the archbishop's palace and the hundreds of ruined homes as they emerged from the destruction wrought by the bombardment of the Huns, touched the audience deeply. Mlle. Rott's impassioned appeal was made in behalf of the children upon whom the continuance of French national life depends. In an eloquent address she pictured her experiences as a Red Cross nurse among the families of the destitute in the northern section of her country. At the showing of the picture of the statue of Joan d'Arc, the audience applauded loudly. The complete desolation of the country has been rarely as graphically portrayed. A large audience greeted the French nurse.

THIS IS NEW SILK JACKET

(By Betty Brown.)

War may have demanded our wool supply and so fairly shorn us of the delights and comfort of sweaters, save silk ones for ornament only—but who shall regret the sweater's passing when its successor is the short silk coat like this?

There is much of the kimono in its loose fit, its corded facing, its sash, and its long loose sleeves. Yet the bits of embroidery on sash and sleeve betoken it a coat for sports wear with its insignia of the yachtsman. The jacket is developed in rough woven silk of peacock blue, embroidered in gold colored silk. It is worn with a pleated skirt of white serge and was designed by Marguerite, of Chicago, for Marilyn Miller, a charming young actress.

Dr. Johnson has shown these pictures at other churches and institutions in the city, and everywhere they have been received as real educational benefits to both children and grown-ups. As he is leaving next week for an absence of several months, this will be the last time the pictures will be shown before his departure. There will be no charge for admission, and it is an attraction that will doubtless draw a large crowd.

TO SHOW HONOR TO FORMER INSTRUCTORS

Parent-Teachers' Association of Third District School Will Entertain.

Mrs. Minnie Webb and Miss Fannie Bellows, teachers for many years in the Third District school, will be honorees of a reception to be held at the school Friday night under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association of the district, with Mrs. Janet Durand in charge. No invitations are being sent out, but all patrons of the school and former pupils of Mrs. Webb and Miss Bellows are asked to be present. Mrs. Webb has charge of the kindergarten grade of the school, while Miss Bellows is teacher of the advanced grades. Both are held firmly in the affection of scores of Chattanoogaans, who are asked to avail themselves of this opportunity to honor their former instructors.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO PURCHASE THRIFT STAMPS

Third District school children will devote the sum of $18—realized in excess of the amount for taking them "over the top" in the Junior Red Cross drive—to the purchase of thrift stamps for pupils who so far have not been able to procure them. The children of this school have sold 3,183 stamps. Under the direction of the Parent-Teachers' association, the school has been converted into a social center, and the large halls on the lower floor are being

CHATTANOOGA BANKERS OFFER PRIZES FOR THRIFT STAMP CONTEST

Forty Dollars Each to Boy and Girl Selling or Buying Largest Amount—$1,606 in All to be Awarded—Women of Soddy Organize for Drive.

War saving societies were organized at Soddy and Daisy Wednesday and are the first rural communities to respond to the request sent out to the women of the rural sections by Mrs. E. F. Wheland, county chairman of the women's division.

Mrs. James Pickle was elected chairman and Mrs. E. S. Skellern, secretary of the Soddy organization. Mrs. J. H. Clark and Mrs. William Alexander were elected chairman and secretary respectively of the Daisy division.

The purpose of the society is to have the women pledge themselves to buy and sell war certificates and thrift stamps. They will also be in charge of the children's organizations, of their respective communities, and keep them supplied with stamps.

Societies have been organized in each schoolroom. The sum of $666 has been donated by the bankers of Chattanooga, to be awarded as prizes among the school children in a thrift stamp contest which has been opened. The contest will continue throughout the summer months, closing Oct. 1. The money will be equally divided among the county, city and colored schools, thus giving $202 for prizes for each division.

To both the girl and the boy selling or buying the greatest number of war saving certificates and thrift stamps from date of contest will be awarded $40 in cash. For the second largest amount sold $25 will be given. Other prizes will be: Third largest number sold, $15; fourth prize, $10; fifth prize, $5; sixth prize, $3; seventh prize, $2; eighth prize, $1.

An additional prize has been offered by Joseph Curtis, of the Chattanooga District Fair association to the boy and girl who capture the grand prizes. A special day will be set aside during the district fair, when the prizes will be awarded. It is expected that much rivalry will be shown by the children during the contest.

Over three hundred citizens attended the meeting which was held at Soddy Wednesday, and it was truly a patriotic meeting. Following the program 1850 thrift stamps were purchased by those present.

Among those taking part on the program were A. W. Maine, II, head of the federal reserve bank in Washington, D. C., who spoke on liberty bonds and war saving certificates.

Mrs. Harry Lacey spoke on "Red Cross Work and the French Orphans." Mrs. J. B. Lauderbach, county home demonstrator, and Mrs. Paul J. Kruehl told of the wheat shortage and showed the value of food conservation.

Mrs. Wheland explained the women's part in selling thrift stamps. Joseph Curtis also spoke. Music was furnished by the Soddy orchestra.

A number of readings were given by the pupils of the primary grades. Miss Dill, teacher of domestic art, presided.

attended up for holding community meetings.

Garden work is progressing nicely among the pupils.

Last Friday one of the grades held a minstrel show, realizing $37.50 on a 5-cent admission. The fund will be devoted to school improvement and the Red Cross.

PAULIST CHORISTERS SING BEFORE SECOND PACKED HOUSE

No musical attraction has been greeted by as large an audience this season as was the Paulist choristers Wednesday night at their second performance at the Lyric. A chorus of 12, and so enthusiastic was the audience in its appreciation that the singers had to return more than once before the footlights. When Master Dick Finn sang "Old Black Joe" with a chorus refrain, the tender thrill of this time-honored song was never presented with more pathos than through the notes of the childish voice. He was twice called back and sang a lullaby, by Brahms, "The Rose of Summer" with equally as good effect.

SATURDAY EAST LAKE RED CROSS TAG DAY

Patriotic Meeting in Park Pavilion Sunday Afternoon. Military Band to Play.

East Lake has set the machinery of human interest in actual motion in the interest of raising funds for the use of the Red Cross. Young people of the suburb have been circulating on the streets of the pretty little town this week, not in the merry game of "tag," but in the business proposition of selling tags to aid in a national work of vital importance.

The project started in the Congress-tional church of East Lake and has spread to the borders of the town, and plans are now being made to sell tags on the streets of Chattanooga Saturday, so it will behoove every pedestrian to have silver change in his or her pocket, if he or she don't want to give bills in exchange for tags. This will end the sale for the week, but for the new week they will have a patriotic service Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the pavilion at East Lake, when a military band from the post will be on hand and the Pilgrim church choir will sing. There will be three speakers—for the Red Cross, thrift stamps and liberty bonds, respectively. The street car company has promised to carry posters announcing this meeting, and some of the movies have agreed to put notices of it on the screen. Tags will be sold to the crowd as it gathers and disperses from the park Sunday afternoon. East Lake has set her mark high and fully expects to reach it, if not go "over the top."

MANY SLACKERS TO FACE FEDERAL COURT

April Term Opens Next Monday—M. C. Raulston Case May Prove Sensational.

Twenty-three civil and about seventy-five criminal cases are docketed for the April term of federal court which will open next Monday. Judge E. T. Sanford will be on the bench and quite a number of the cases to be heard will attract more than passing interest.

Criminal cases will probably consume a week or ten days and a majority of these cases are based on violations of the selective service law, misrepresentations in filling out questionnaires being charged in many instances. Selling whisky to soldiers is another charge registered against many who will face the court at the coming session. In addition to a number of cases continued from the last session of the United States district court, three criminal cases have been transferred from Knoxville, and one from Greenville and will be tried in Chattanooga.

M. C. Raulston, prominent Marion county farmer, will face a charge of making false statements in filling out his questionnaire and this case will likely attract more attention than any other scheduled for the April term. Mr. Raulston recently came to Chattanooga, surrendered himself to Commissioner Sam J. McAdams and made bond for his appearance. In the indictment against him he is charged with having claimed exemption on the ground that he is engaged in agricultural work, when such is not the case, according to those who were instrumental in bringing the case to the attention of the federal grand jury.

It is understood that Mr. Raulston claims the charges filed against him emanated from his political enemies and states that he will be able to prove that statements contained in his questionnaire were true. In any event, all parties connected with the charge are prominent in Marion county and the case will be a hard-fought one.

Another case of much interest is that of the Mountain City mills, charged with violation of the federal pure food and drugs act.

Publication of the civil docket was made several days ago.

FRANK CARDEN MAKES LIBERTY LOAN SPEECH

Big Parade in Bristol and Gen. Charles T. Cates One of the Speakers.

Hon. Frank S. Carden has just returned from Bristol, where he, together with Gen. Charles T. Cates, delivered a liberty loan speech. Mr. Carden said that their speeches, together with some remarks made by some of Bristol's leading citizens, followed a big parade, which lasted for two hours. The speaking took place on the Virginia side of the courthouse and was heard by one of the largest crowds ever gathered in that city. Mr. Carden said that the people of Bristol were fully awakened to the terrific conflict now pending in Europe and responded as were continuing to do so liberally with their pocketbooks. A large amount of liberty bonds were bought following the speeches of Mr. Carden and Gen. Cates.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Double its beauty in just a few moments.

"Danderine" makes your hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. A WORD SENSIBLE MEN
I know that you are worked overtime and have not the time nor inclination to talk politics with candidates for public office. Your mind is centered upon the one subject of war.
So far as I am concerned I do not propose to pester you by urging my candidacy.
I have been a Justice of the Peace for nine years. Have tried to make a clean record in that office.
If you feel that my record is good and that I merit an indorsement at your hands, I will be glad to have you vote for me in the primary election, April 24th.
If in doubt as to my record and my adaptability to fill the office, I invite you to ask any lawyer at the Chattanooga bar, either of our two daily newspapers or any of the Judges of our Courts. They can tell you their candid judgment of my candidacy, whatever that may be.
If re-elected I shall be actively interested in favoring such measures as will protect our city against future floods.
Respectfully,
